From the Pastor's Heart

“He is not here, but is risen” were the words that pierced the morning air according to the testimony of Matthew, Mark, and Luke as they penned the narrative of that Resurrection Morning. Mary Magdalene went to the tomb early. The week had been very traumatic, exhausting, and demanding for the followers of Jesus, and it ended in what seemed like bitter defeat. On the contrary, however, that Resurrection Day was to be one that would forever change the course of life for those men and women. Jesus had died and provided atonement for the sins of sinners, and that Resurrection Morning authenticated everything that the Son of God had said about Himself. Today, as we worship and celebrate the Lord Jesus, may the joy of that first Resurrection Day be ours!

A special thank you to all the men who prepared and worked so hard to make this Resurrection Day a great time of fellowship, worship, and blessing. The meal after the Sunrise Service was very enjoyable, and we deeply appreciate their hard work and labor of love.

Deacons, please remember that you have a very important meeting with Joe Weatherly on Thursday, March 31, at 6:00. Please pray for this very important time together.

May I again remind our church family of the importance of April 1, 2, and 3. We will have the joy of hosting the Julian Sims Family as Julian comes in view of a call as our Minister of Music and Senior Adults. This will provide us valuable time to begin to get to know this family. Julian will be meeting with the Deacons at 8:00, and then we will have a fellowship at 2:00 – 3:30 to allow everyone the pleasure of getting to know the Sims Family. Please, Celebration Choir, remember that you will have rehearsal with Julian at 4:00 to prepare for Sunday. This would be a great time for any choir member who has not been active to reconnect and prepare for worship. On Sunday, April the 3rd, the Personnel Team will be bringing a recommendation to the church family to extend a call to Julian Sims to serve on our staff.

Please remember our Annie Armstrong Easter Offering as we give to the North American Mission Board to support our many missionaries who are serving throughout North America. We can make a difference through our prayers and giving. We will have the privilege to give to this offering though the end of April.

God bless each of you, and may we all grow in God's grace and allow the Holy Spirit to impart to us the power of the Lord to enable us to be His witnesses.

Brother Billy
