From the Pastor's Heart

Welcome to Worship! As we gather this morning, no doubt there are many thoughts and emotions racing through our minds. This week may have been one in which we have experienced the richness of sensing God's presence, or it may have been one in which we have been caught in an emotional struggle. As I contemplate worship, because I am not aware of where everyone one is in his personal walk with the Lord, then the words of Jesus in Matthew 11:28 speak very powerfully: "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Jesus invited us to come, whatever our circumstances, and He promised to give us rest. This is not a rest from labor but a rest from our own futile and sometimes personal struggles that deal with the work of grace through the Holy Spirit in our lives. As I give prayerful thought and consideration to worship, I am asking the Lord to give us His rest. May we come and find His rest today.

Vacation Bible School is upon us. June 5 – 9 is the week of our school. I am looking forward to a wonderful week as we focus on a study of the flood and Noah's life in the ark. This will be one of the times during the year when we can love on children from all walks of life. We will have children who attend church, children who have never been to church, and children in between the two. But for five days, we have the opportunity to teach them about Jesus and love them in Christ. We have a great staff ready, and they are diligently preparing for that week. If your personal schedule and commitments will allow you to come and help, please call the church office and talk to Gayle. We have a community visitation blitz ready for Monday, May 23, at 6:00 P.M., to pass out leaflets and fliers to inform the neighborhood of our Bible School week. Please pray for the week, and join us on Monday night to assist with the leaflets.

The month of June will be a very busy time in our church. We start off with Vacation Bible School, then we have some children going to children's camp at Norman Park Baptist Assembly, then some of the staff will be going to the Southern Baptist Convention, and then the month will conclude with our students going to camp at Super WOW. May I ask that the church family prayerfully seek the Lord and ask Him to use these weeks to strengthen and enhance the spiritual life of all who go!

May the Lord richly bless you today! Please pray for us as we continue to focus on the role of the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer. Pray for the Lord to give clear understanding and a desire to follow Him in our daily life.

Scripture Memorization:

“Blessed are those who are persecuted for _____ sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely for My sake. Rejoice and be _____ glad, for great is your reward in _____, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.” Matthew 5:10-12
