From the Pastor's Heart

We are in the midst of Vacation Bible School even as this article is being prepared. We are enjoying the privilege we have this week of teaching children about the riches of God's Word. Vacation Bible School is one of those wonderful tools that God has provided that assists us in reaching children and influencing them for Christ. I want to express my deepest appreciation for those who have volunteered to serve our Lord and these children in Vacation Bible School. Thank you for your servant heart and for your commitment to love these children, to teach them the Bible, and to point them to Christ.

This morning we will conclude our study on the role of the Holy Spirit in filling and controlling our lives. With our understanding of God's Word and the role of the Holy Spirit in our lives, we will now turn in the next two weeks to the role of Spiritual gifts and how we are to serve the Lord through them. God has gifted each of us, and when the body of Christ uses their spiritual gifts, the blessings of God are realized. God has called each of us to serve Him faithfully. I pray that as we examine God's Word and our service to Him we will see each member demonstrate obedience to the Lord by serving the Lord in some unique way in 2016 and 2017.

The Deacon Body met on Thursday night and had a wonderful meeting. We have been working on what we believe are the values and principles that the Lord desires for our fellowship. We also talked about future ministry and how the Deacon Body will serve in the future. We will be sharing with the church family in the near future about our reorganization of the men as they seek to minister to the body of Christ at Beallwood. We had some great discussions about some future needs of the church and the financial stability of the church. I say all of this to encourage our church family to pray in these days as we seek to lead and provide direction for our fellowship.

Children's Camp at Norman Park, Georgia, will be this week. I will be leaving for camp with a group of our children on Monday morning. Please pray for the children as they travel to camp and spend a week of Bible Study, prayer, worship, relationship-building, recreation and many other wonderful learning opportunities. Pray that that our children will encounter the Lord in a life-changing way.

The Samaria and Mexico Mission Teams are preparing for their trips on July 8-15 and July 16-23, respectively. These teams need our prayer support and encouragement as they make their final preparations. Please pray for the Samaria team as they travel to Manchester, Kentucky, to work alongside other churches in our Columbus Baptist Association. The Mexico team will be engaged in a number of opportunities, and one way that you can assist is by donating eye glasses with a magnification of at least 3.5. Please place them in the box in the hallway at the bulletin board.

God bless you and may the Lord work and move in a mighty way in all our lives today. May the Holy Spirit have the liberty to work and move in a way that will honor our Father in Heaven.

Brother Billy
