From the Pastor's Heart

Revival is never an end in itself. The end vision is for God's people and the church to ascend to greater, higher, and loftier commitments. Revival is always a time when God restores new life to His people and sharpens their spiritual life. One can cut a lot more wood with a sharp axe than a dull. And many times in the Christian life, we allow our spiritual life to become dull. My prayer is that this past week will forever alter and change the direction of our church and make her more of what God desires. May I say thank you to the church family for prayerfully and faithfully attending the services.

Today, I will preach from 1 Corinthians 12 and deal with the theme for our church and her direction in 2017. Our theme is "We Are the Body of Christ." I recently had a conversation with a young millennial. I asked him if he was a believer, to which he answered yes. Then I asked if he had a church home, and he said, very honestly, "No, I am not into the church scene." That, in many ways, is the trend and state of modern-day America. Our 2017 theme reflects my desire and commitment for our fellowship in the new year. My prayer is that, as the body of Christ at Beallwood, we will seek to restore integrity to what it means to be a part of the body of Christ.

Saturday, November 12, is our second annual Ministry Planning day. This is a very important day of assessment and planning for our church family. We have invited all of our church family, and this will be a significant time for all of us as we prepare for 2017. May I encourage you to call the church office or sign up today to be part of that special day! We will begin at 8:00 with a time of fellowship and do our work 9:00-12:30.

Today, we began the church membership information class for those who would like to be a member of Beallwood and for any who are to any degree considering membership. We will meet in the choir suite 9:30-10:25 for the next four weeks. May I encourage all prospective members to attend!

Please remember the Thanksgiving Celebration on Sunday, November 20, at 5:00; the celebration will begin in the Sanctuary. You will not want to miss the wonderful time of worship and fellowship. Buy your tickets now by coming to the church office or by seeing one of the staff after worship.

God bless you! I love you in the Lord and pray that the Lord will richly and abundantly bless you today.
