From the Pastor's Heart

How does one begin to put into words all that can and needs to be said at a time like today? For forty-two years, the Lord has allowed me the wonderful privilege of serving His Church. During those years, the Lord guided me as I walked the path of sorrow, heartache, and death with many families. And during those times, I watched as families struggled with the death of precious loved ones. As I walked with them, God's Word was often the source of my counsel and their comfort. Today is different; the most wonderful man, a man I have called Dad and Father for sixty-two years, has walked his last mile and struggled his last time. As my father departed this life on Saturday, June 17, it began to dawn on me that the privilege that I had for these sixty-two years was gone. There would be no more fishing trips, no more phone calls, no more gardens to plant, no more conversations about life, and no more Father's Days to spend together. The Lord has been good to our family, the journey has been great, and the joy of having a loving father has been the experience of a lifetime. To my church family I express my deepest gratitude for walking with me and my family in these trying days. Your presence, love, prayers, encouragement, and kindness have made a little easier a very difficult time in the life of my mother and all our family.

I love you dearly, and mere words are so inadequate for expressing to you all that I feel and appreciate about you. My family and I offer our deepest thanks and appreciation for all that you have done for us. We pray for you and thank God upon every remembrance of you.

I Love You,

Brother Billy
