An Open Letter to the Beallwood Church family from the Transitional Search Team.

The Transitional Search Team, per the By-Laws and Constitution, will be recommending on June 4, in the Sunday morning worship service, Dr. David Mills as Beallwood's next pastor.

David is from Texas, but he has ministered in Georgia for 15 years. He has served in student ministry, served in The Georgia Baptist Convention Evangelism Office, taught Evangelism and Missions at Southwestern Seminary, and pastored churches, most recently, Beech Haven in Athens. He also served as pastor of the Ladonia Baptist Church in Phenix City.

Aside from God, the next most important thing to David is his family including his wife, Michelle, from Maryville, Tennessee, a professional interpreter for the deaf. Also, their four children: Jonathan (30), their oldest, who lives with them; Hannah Grace (28), who is with Keller and Hickman law office in Washington DC; Sarah Kate (22), who is the hostess and assistant at Presbyterian Village Retirement Community in Athens; and Luke (18) who just graduated from high school, and is an intern at Phoenix Community Church in Athens this summer.

In each of the churches where he and Michelle served, God gave them a youth movement and a baby boom! Don't laugh, remember Sarah and Abraham!

Currently, David has an itinerant Bible teaching ministry and serves as the chairman of The Executive Committee of The Georgia Baptist Mission Board.

David wants others to know him as someone who loves Jesus, loves his wife and children, loves the Bible, loves preaching, loves lost people, loves prayer, and loves the church with an unquenchable passion.

The Transitional Search Team has scheduled a "meet and greet" reception with David and Michelle on June 3. The following day, June 4, David will preach in view of a call in the morning worship service. A vote concerning God's will for Brother David to be our pastor will be held after the invitation.
